

Bringing pets into Thailand

Rabies, DHP/L vaccine

Rabies and Feline Panleukopenia vaccine

Rabies vaccine

(Please scan the QR code (1)(3)&(4) for more information)

Request an import permit by email to Animal quarantine station(AQS) with the following documentation (not less than 7 working days)

- R1/1 form (scan QR code(2) for download)
- Copy of passenger's passport
- Pet's photo
- Flight itinerary
- Vaccination record (must be in English)
- Microchip certificate

Port of Entry :
Suvarnabhumi Airport (qsap_bkk@dld.go.th)
Phuket (qshk_hkt@dld.go.th)
Chiang Mai (qscm_cmi@dld.go.th)

- Bring the Import Permit package to a USDA accredited for issuing Official Health Certificated
- Submit Official Health Certificate to local APHIS-VS Endorsement Officers for endorsement

Approved import permit will be sent by Email

Noted:

- * The certificate for dogs and cats is valid for 10 days after endorsement
- * The certificate for small animals is valid for 30 days after endorsement

Veterinary officer review the documents and Issuing an import permit

If additional information is required, the officer will contact you by email

At least 3 working days

Upon arrival at Suvarnabhumi airport contact AQS for Veterinary Inspection

- A Notice of Import Approval (Form R-6) and Import License (Form R-7) will be issued.
- Pet entry fees (in cash) 500 Baht per animal.

Travel with your pets (with document)

Preparing your documents before departure

- Original pets' passport and traveler
- Original vaccination book
- Original Official Health Certificate with endorsement from USDA/APHIS
- A print out of Import Permit
- Certification of blood test against rabies (optional)

(1) Import guideline

(2) R1/1 form

(3) Dog & cat

(4) Rabbit

For hand carried pet:

AQS (Port of entry) next to carousel No. 8
Tel. +(662) 134 0636 Business hours 24 hrs daily (Bangkok)
Phuket Business Hours : Monday – Sunday 8:30 am – 4:30 pm
Chiang Mai Business Hours: Monday – Friday 8:30 am – 4:30 pm

For pet imported by air cargo:

AQS (Cargo terminal: Free Zone Area, CE-1Building)
Tel. +(662) 134 0731
Business hours 08.30 a.m.- 4.30 p.m. Monday to Friday